

Amy Elizabeth Dempsey Tidwell

February 18, 1974 - April 15, 2019

Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford

Mrs. Amy Elizabeth Dempsey Tidwell, 45, passed away Monday, April 15, 2019, at Baptist Memorial Hospital in Memphis, TN. Visitation will be Thursday, April 18, 2019, from 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m., at Coleman Funeral Home. A funeral service will be held Friday, April 19, 2019, at 10:00 a.m., at First Baptist Church of Oxford (800 Van Buren Ave., Oxford, MS 38655), and interment will follow at 2:00 p.m., at Bakers Chapel United Methodist Church Cemetery (1965 Johnston Road, Hernando, MS. 38632). In honor of Mrs. Amy's request, Bro. Robert Allen and Bro. David Ard will officiate. Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford is in charge of arrangements.

Amy was born in Metairie, La. in 1974. She is known for her larger than life personality and her smile that brightened every room she entered. Her laugh was contagious and she put her heart and soul into everything she did. Celebrating Amy's life seems only natural to all who knew and loved her.

Amy was an Acute Care Nurse Practitioner at Urgent Care Clinic of Oxford for 8 years, and she served as an adjunct nursing instructor at Northwest Mississippi Community College. She was a faithful member of the MS Nursing Association and the Junior Auxiliary of Oxford. She spent her spare time reading, participating in photography, enjoying her work in the flower beds, and traveling with her husband, Will. They shared a bond like no other; a love that everyone they knew craved to have. She also adored hanging out with her family and playing with her grandson, Tyler. To Sarah Beth, Amy was "Super Mom", always there to support her in every endeavor. She likes to say they were "attached at the hip". Amy also spent time working with various volunteer organizations including Yellow Leaf Baptist Church where she was an active member.

Mrs. Tidwell leaves behind her loving husband, Will Tidwell of Oxford; two daughters, Sarah Beth Tidwell of Oxford and Alex Tidwell of Boston, MA; one son, Ethan Tidwell of Oxford; her mother, Susan Dempsey of Oxford; one sister, Lawrie Williams of New Orleans, LA; one brother, Casey Dempsey of Atlanta, GA; her mother and father-in-law, Gary and Margaret Hale of Taylor, MS; best friends, Lauren Lundgren and Wanda Howell; and one grandson, Tyler Tidwell of Oxford, to whom she was "Nims".

Mrs. Tidwell was preceded in death by her father, Larry Dempsey.

Donations and memorials in honor of Mrs. Amy Elizabeth Dempsey Tidwell may be made to the Yellow Leaf Building Fund (50 Cr. 435, Oxford, MS) or the First Baptist Missions Fund (800 Van Buren Ave., Oxford, MS).

Online condolences may be left on the Tribute Wall at www.colemanfuneralhome.com

“ It is with heavy hearts that we have said goodbye to Amy. She gave so much of her life to others, in her profession, her laugh and smile, and her goodness. She will always be in our hearts. We pray the Lord holds Will, Sarah Beth, and Susan, steadfastly in His arms as they grieve. Amy will always be remembered as very special angel of God.

“ Susan, Sarah Beth, and Will,

What a sad day it was to hear Amy left this earth. She was such a beautiful lady, inside and out. We loved her so and love ya'll too. We know without a doubt she is an Angel in Heaven now. Mr. C. and Ms. C. (Becky) have been praying for you and your family. Even though Amy has left us. She will not be forgotten. We know now, she is with her Daddy and they are together again. There are no words we can say, but we wanted all of you to know how much we love and adore all of you.

Love,
Becky and Larry Christman

“ I was blessed to have met Amy in 2011, when our Son’s were rack mates at Marine bootcamp. We were both Nurses, and I was so impressed with Amy becoming a Nurse Practitioner. What a beautiful woman, wife, mom, and friend. Her live for her family was so apparent. Blessed for sure. Praying for her family. I know so many hearts are broken, but Amy would want us to stay strong in our faith in God. I know Amy will always watch over her loved ones from Heaven

“ I was fortunate to have her as a drama student at Lafayette Schools. She was a delight and her smile was effervescent. She enjoyed dance: really shined in our version of CATS. I was so comforted to know she was taking care of my mother in ICU in Oxford. She was very special to me. My love and condolences to her family.
