

Jacqueline D. Cole

December 23, 1924 - December 20, 2020

Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford

Mrs. Jacqueline deMange Cole, 85, passed away in Memphis, Tennessee, on Sunday, December 21, 2020. No services are planned at this time. Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Cole was born to the late Margaret and Jack deMange of Charleston, Mississippi.

She graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration from the University of Mississippi. While a student at Ole Miss, Mrs. Cole was a member of Delta Gamma Fraternity. It was here that she met her beloved husband, Dr. Gerald B. Cole, and was crowned the Sweetheart of Sigma Nu. After graduating from dental school, they moved to Waynesboro, Mississippi, where Jerry practiced Dentistry and they raised their son, Jimmy.

After living in Waynesboro, they retired to Oxford, Mississippi. As active alumni, Jackie and Jerry enjoyed attending all Ole Miss sporting events to cheer loudly for the Rebels and traveled often with the Alumni Association. Jackie held a special place in her heart for her family, especially her granddaughters who were her pride and joy. Her family describes her as being loving, caring, fiercely loyal and a joy to be around. She was always engaging and never met a stranger and could be counted on to be the life of the party. She will be dearly missed by her family and friends.

Jackie is survived by her son, James A. (Ann) Cole, of Memphis, Tennessee; three granddaughters, Callaway Cole, of Atlanta, Georgia, Channell Cole and Jacqueline Cole, both of Memphis, and her younger sister Kay deMange Allen.

Jackie was preceded in death by her husband, Dr. Gerald B. Cole, her parents, Margaret and Jack deMange, and her brother Pete deMange.

In lieu of flowers, donations and memorials can be made to The University of Mississippi or to St. Jude's Children Hospital.

Please leave online condolences on the Tribute Wall at <http://www.colemanfuneralhome.com>.