“ Jimmy was a wonderful man. He loved his family, his country, and he loved his military family and friends. I was Jimmy's canteen hostess (bartender) at Southaven VFW Post 10567. Every morning at 10 , he would walk in and always smiling , he would visit and talk about his family and always wanted to know how my family was doing. He shared with me that he was a swimmer back in his day. He had a heart as good as gold. If he heard something sad , he was not ashamed to shed a tear. I will miss my sweet friend, but I know he is in Heaven with his sweet Maxine and our buddy Charlie Duke. I pray for comfort and peace to his family. with love Penne Lynne
