

Matthew T. Denham

October 28, 1988 - October 8, 2020

Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven

Mr. Matthew T. Denham, 31, passed away Thursday, October 8, 2020, in Nesbit, MS. Visitation will be Monday, October 12, 2020, from 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m., at Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven (626 Star Landing Rd., Southaven, MS 38672). A memorial service will immediately follow at 5:00 p.m., also at Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven. Pastor Jonathan Wallace will officiate. Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven is in charge of arrangements.

Matt will be greatly missed by family and friends. He was the one guy that was goofy, big-hearted, and had a whole lot of "can do." He always put his family first and enjoyed spending time with them. He was a rock, and he was the best brother to Andrew. They did almost everything together. If you saw one of them, then you most likely would see the other. His family and friends were everything to him.

Matt was a tour manager for his brother's band, Dirty Streets, for 12 years, traveling the country and abroad in Europe. He worked as an assistant recording engineer at the esteemed Sam Phillips Studios in Memphis, as well as recording at his home studio, Dream Factory. He also had a love for woodworking and building things. His passion, vision, and courage were a constant life line for his family and the many friends his life touched. His parents have been greatly blessed by God to have had the opportunity to raise and live with this wonderful man. He was a thoughtful friend and courageous beyond measure.

Matt is survived by his parents, Mark Denham and Beverly Denham of Southaven; his brother, Andrew Denham of Memphis, TN; his grandparents, Charles Citrano and Mary Citrano of Shreveport, LA, and Ida Denham of Bossier City, LA; and two uncles, Curtis Citrano of Vancouver, British Columbia, and Bryan Denham of Oklahoma City, OK.

Matt was preceded in death by his grandparents, Harold Denham and Barbara Denham.

In honor of Mr. Matthew T. Denham's service to our country, the flag of the United States Army will be flown at Coleman Funeral Home, the day of the services.

Donations and memorials in honor of Mr. Matthew T. Denham may be made to Citizens United for Research in Epilepsy (www.cureepilepsy.org/donate).

“ Mark, Beverly and Andrew, I can't even begin to imagine the magnitude of loss you are feeling. I remember Matthew as a very sweet, polite young man and I vividly remember how proud you were of him and rightfully so. I will keep you all in my prayers moving forward. I pray you will be able to find comfort and peace knowing that Matthew is with our Lord now and know there is a joyous reunion awaiting you one day.

“ Matt, you were a shining star. You and Andrew living my dream of music, traveling, laughter, and fun! Now, Who will be my date to the Grammys?.. You loved kids and Marshall sure looked up to you when he was little. He loves you both like brothers, and you always included him in things you did. Your manners were impeccable! Your smile and humor were infectious! One sweet memory I had was when y'all came to the float riding party. You had never been on a float, you and Andrew got on with me. The krewe did not want us to throw beads in the float den, folks were begging for beads, I looked over you were smiling And holding beads up, just having a ball. You saw a little kid and you threw some beads, you looked at me, smiled and said, I just couldn't help myself Ms Margaret! That's what I'll miss about you is your love for others and wanting to make them happy. So glad to see you and Drew in June. we will keep your memory alive in our hearts always..Rest easy and fly high...we love you and you will be greatly missed! Margaret and Danny

“ I am sending my most sincere condolences to Matt's mother, father, and brother Andrew. He was such a beautiful soul that touched so many people around him. He showed me the love of a brother that had no bounds, and never gave up on anyone in his life no matter price. His light will shine in my life forever for the things he taught me, and by living by example to show the world that it's ok to be a good person. He was the big brother I never had, and taught me so much about myself and what I could be with the right perspective. I looked up to him because no matter the stress of everyday life he always found a way to find the good in a situation and focus on that instead of the bad.

To Matt's parents: I know these are dark times, but please find solace in knowing that his beautiful spirit will live on forever. He has been a rock for me and so many others in his life, and you should be so proud to know you raised such a great child with such an amazing spirit.

To Andrew: Brother, I cannot imagine your pain right now. I hope you know when you're ready I will be available to you anytime you need to talk. We are the same group of friends we have always been, and know that we are all here for you Andrew.

To Matt Denham: I love you so much brother. Thank you so much for showing me how precious life really is. I live my life everyday on the principles you taught me from our conversations we had out back of The Wine Cellar. You were my brother, my friend, my judge and jury. The guy that told me I was an idiot when I started falling off, and the guy that told me I should believe in myself more when I had doubt. You are that friend. I say it in present tense cause you will be with me forever brother. May you sleep peacefully knowing you have touched so many lives just by being you.... "It's Your Boy" Matt Denham

“ My deepest sympathies and prayers are with Matt's family right now. Matt was such a fine young man! He was such a good and genuine friend to my son, John, and had such a sweet, sweet spirit. The world will be a sadder place without him now. I pray God's comfort and peace for his family and friends as we all mourn his loss.

“ Matt is such a warm and welcoming soul with his wide smile and open arms. He was extremely well mannered, respectful, supportive, faithful and an overall joy to be around. He would have made a very successful diplomat. He was so proud of Andrew and the band and I really respected his work ethic and dedication with Dirty Streets. I am so glad that he got to play on every album so we all can hang out again. He was one of the good guys. What a huge loss for humanity. I miss you, Matt. Your friendship was a gift. “ I will miss your smile and you calling me ma'am instead of aunt Sharon. I will never eat banana pudding or maraschino cherries without thinking of you. You always had patience with children. Your mom and I were saying that just last week. Gone too soon but its all in God's plan. You get the party started and save us a good seat. We will see you again.

“ There are no words Matthew. Not to see your shining face. Not to hear your yes mam and no mam. When I saw you I thought of what might have been. This makes me grieve all over again. We love you, beautiful boy.
