“ Patsy was a lady that had a large impact on my life. She was a great Sunday School teacher. She studied and her classes were very interesting due to her extensive knowledge of the Bible. Patsy also was an excellent cook and did a lot of cooking for the annual Community Thanksgiving meal at Emory. Patsy also was my neighbor and was always had a big smile when I stopped by. Patsy knew and loved the Lord and was always sharing Gods love with others. She will be missed.

“ I sure will miss my partner in crime. We had such a great time when we would venture out for doctor's appointment, hair cuts , grocery shopping or whatever it was that she wanted to do for the day. Loved her radiating smile that was so contagious. She loved the Lord and always would share with me her love each time we were together. I will miss you terribly and as I would always tell her when she would say ,”I don't know why the Lord doesn't take me home” , that the Lord is not through with you yet;I still have a lot to learn from you. She was such a blessing to me and taught me so much. We will see each other again when the Lord calls me home. Love you Mrs. Patsy.

“ I have loved Ms Patsy and Bob for so many years for so many reasons! She arranged our whole wedding reception at Emory 32 years ago. Mr Bob was one of my bosses at Rollins! She dearly loved her children and her faith was radiant to everyone around her. My granddaughter, Cameron and her became great friends at church and always compared their jewelry every week! She remembers the last time she saw her was Christmas when she went caroling. She is having a hard time with this but she is so blessed to have known her. Thank you Patsy love you will miss you
